

ELC 360° experience provides an entire scope of consulting services, i.e. :

- Planning studies and preliminary design
- Prefeasibility and feasibility studies
- Environmental impact studies
- Final design, preparation of prequalification and bidding documents
- Project preparation for international lending agencies and credit sources, assistance in project financing
- Assistance to Clients in bidding processes, bid evaluations /negotiations with contractors and suppliers
- Detailed design
- Construction management and supervision
- Factory inspections, quality control, procurement and expediting
- Project management services (planning, budgeting, scheduling and supervision)
- Supervision of power plants O&M
- Preparation of O&M manuals, training of operation personnel
- Project commissioning
- Consultancy services and assistance during the plant operation
- Technical assistance programs
- Management Build Up programmes