

Fast Track Project for three gas turbine power plants is aimed at the installation of eight new gas turbines in the three different Iraq sites of Karbala, Hilla and Taji, for a total capacity of 660 MW.

Works assigned to ELC consist of the Owner's Engineer services, including the preparation of EPC tender documents, the assistance during EPC contract award, the assistance in project management, the review and approval of EPC detailed design, the witness and approval of factory tests, the supervision during erection and commissioning phases.