

The project consists in a Complete Geoscientific Survey in the Geothermal Concession Area of Cisolok-Cisukarame, located at west of Pelabuhan Ratu, Sukabumi Kabupaten - West Java, with the aim to investigate the presence of the possible exploitable geothermal resource and advise on the location of the first deep exploratory wells.

The services focused on the review of existing studies and the achievement of the Geoscientific Investigations (geological and geovolcanological survey, geochemical survey with chemical and isotopic analyses of water, magnetotelluric survey with 3D inversions, TDEM survey, gravimetric survey, inventory of hot and cold springs, remote sensing study, analysis and interpretation of petrography and alteration mineralogy, integrated interpretation of the results, planning further deep exploration)